How can the Supervised Visitation Program help your family?

What is the Supervised Visitation Program?

Supervised Visitation is a program that works with the courts to provide a safe visitation setting for families in conflict.

How long are the visits and when are they scheduled?

Visits are 1 to 3 hours in length, once per week. Visits are scheduled on Wednesday, Friday or Sunday evening 5-8 or Sunday afternoon 2:30-4:30 at a time convenient for both parents.

Who are the staff?

Our programs are run with a combination of staff and volunteers. All personnel are trained to work with parents and children.

Who are the clients?

The court may refer any family to our program in order to ensure safe visiting between children and their parent, grandparents, or siblings.

How is the family referred?

Families are referred to the program usually through court orders. Once the order is issued, both parties should immediately call CRC to schedule a pre-service interview. Staff meets with both parties individually, and sometimes with the children, for a pre-visit orientation. During this interview, program rules are reviewed, paperwork is filled out and a schedule for visitation is established.

Is there a fee?

Yes, The non-custodial visitor (unless a court order says differently) is required to pay a fee per visit, based on how many hours of visits and type of visit.

How long does it take to complete the program?

It is at the discretion of the courts to determine how long a family will participate in the program. The court's decision will be based on the safety needs of the child(ren), the progress of the visits and perhaps other factors.

VISITATION HOURS:
Wednesday, Friday
and Sunday 5-8p
Sunday 2:30-4:30

Where do the visits take place?

The visits are facilitated in a child friendly setting with plenty of toys, games and videos available to take to the private visit rooms. We are lucky enough to rent space in Hope United Methodist Church, conveniently located across from Franklin Park Mall.
